Report of the Online Lecture Series

Fourth episode of online lecture series, 1st June 2021

The fourth episode of the lecture series on "The future of Indian democracy" was organized by the Department of Political Science of Dr. B.K.B. College, Puranigudam on 1st June, 2021. Along with earlier 237 participants, 469 participants newly participants registered for the fourth episode of the lecture series and almost 150 participants including academicians, research scholars, and students, participated through the Google Meet platform. The objective of the online lecture series is to analyze the various aspects of democracy and to discuss the future of Indian democracy. The fourth episode of the lecture series was started with the welcome speech, delivered by Dr. Nripen Ch. Das, Principal of the college. Dr. Kamal Ch. Saikia, Vice-Principal of the college offered the keynote of the overall online lecture series. Dr. Chuchengfa Gogoi, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, North Lakhimpur College (Autonomous) was the resource person and delivered his speech on the topic "Democratic governance and Indigenous knowledge: Study of Traditional Self Governing Institutions among the Karbis of Assam and Tai Khamtis of Arunahal Pradesh". In his speech, he has focused on the issue of democratic values among the indigenous self governing institutions of North East India in general and customary law or practices of Karbis and Tai Khamtis in particular.

The participants were very active during the sessions. The resource persons answered the numerous queries of the participants. The fourth episode of the lecture series came to an end with the concluding words of Ankur Bania, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Dr. B.K.B. College, Puranigudam.
