

Brief Report on the Introductory Session of the Certificate Course on The Art of Speaking and Writing in English

Organised by: Department of English, Dr. B.K.B. College

Date: 22-03-2021

No. of Participants: 45

Description:

The session for the second batch of the certificate course on The Art of Speaking and Writing in English was formally started on 22nd March, 2021 with the presence of the respected Principal, Vice-Principal, the faculties of English department and few faculties from other departments along with students of Dr. B.K.B. College. Around forty students actively participated in the programme and expressed their interests to be enrolled in it so that they could develop their capabilities in applying English language in all fields parallel with their formal institutional education. Beneficial lectures were delivered by the Principal, Vice-Principal, the other faculties of the college on the concerned areas and the students were delighted listening to them. It was all the more a wonderful session on skill development.

Snapshots of the Programme:

