

Brief Report on Galpakatha-An Evening with Storytelling

Organised by: Department of English in association with B.K. Study Centre & IQAC
(Dr. B.K.B. College)

Date: 30-11-2019

No. of Participants: 100

Description:

The programme on Galpakatha- An Evening with Storytelling was organized by the Department of English in association with B.K.B. Study Centre and IQAC of Dr. B.K.B. College on 30th November, 2019. The special attraction of the programme was the two veteran personalities of Assam, viz. Atanu Bhattacharyya & Mitali De. With the extraordinary presentation of ideas and aspects in the field of storytelling by these two literary personalities, the programme became a fruitful one. The active presence of students of the college, the faculties from all departments, the invited guests from diverse sections, and the people of the locality made the programme really exceptional. The deliberations of the chief guests had attracted all the audience towards the field of storytelling and the significance of this habit of storytelling and listening to stories in the present scenario.

Snapshots of the Programme:

