Dr. B. K. Barua study Centre organized the annual memorial lecture for the first time on 6th November, 2019 in the premises of the college and invited Prof. Prodip Khataniar, Associate Professor of Philosophy, Cotton College and a renowned bibliophile of Assam whose personal library has been enriched with more than twenty five thousand rare books to deliver the memorial lecture on Philosophy and Literature: an Interdisciplinary approach. It was an extremely refreshing and insightful session deliberating on areas of cross fertilization. Beyond the traditional boundary of analytical philosophy, questions of being and power of imaginative representation situate a common space for literature and philosophy. Drawing critical reference from Plato down to modern philosophical premises Prof. Khataniar made certain insightful enquiry into the literary creations with reference to Assamese novels and other genres. Prof. Prabhat Bora, A renowned literary critic added his perception on the subject while making his critical observation on the lecture.
