

11. Distribution Program Day of NCC Cadet (16/03/2022) :

Assam Rising Nagaon, March 16: The cadets and staff of 8 Assam BN NCC, Tezpur Group (HQ) visited Navajivan Children's Home an orphanage at Nagaon on Wednesday. The Institution provides shelter to the especially abled children's newly from, few months old abandoned infants of various places, of Assam. During the visit; NCC Cadets distributed various items. Including Lactogen, Diapers for the infants as well as a set of dress, pair of sleepers, pillows, bathing Soaps and washing powders among the inmate of the orphanage, besides, the cadets also gifted recreational items like carrom board etc. To the orphanage for the use of just in those inmates. The inmates were very happy interacting with NCC Cadets and over joyed to receive this item from them. The event concluded with refreshment organized for the inmates and staff of the orphanage. COL. Amar Sing, SM, CO 8 Assam BN NCC thanked the staff of Navajivan Childrens Home and Orphanage for their appreciable. The cadets went back with the valuable lessons on the importance of community services and their duty towards building the Nation.

Date: 16/3/2022

Page No. _____

NCC Distributed Various Items among orphanage inmates

Assam Rising Nagaon, March 16: The cadets and staff of 8 Assam NCC Battalion, Tezpur Group (HQ) visited Navajivan children's Home, an orphanage at Nagaon on Wednesday. The institution provides shelter to the specially abled children's newly born, few months old abandoned infants of various places of Assam. During the visit, NCC cadets distributed various items including lactogen, diapers for the infants as well as a set of dress, pair of sleepers, pillows, bathing soaps and washing powders among the inmates of the orphanage. Besides, the cadets also gifted recreational items like carom board etc to the orphanage for the use of these inmates. The inmates were very happy interacting with NCC cadets and overjoyed to receive these items from them. The event concluded with refreshment organised for the inmates and staff of the orphanage. Col Amar Singh, SM CO 8 ASSAM NCC Battalion, thanked the staff of Navajivan children's home and orphanage for their appreciable. The cadets went back with the valuable lessons on the importance of community services and their duty towards building the Nation.

Participant Participant of Cadet's

- ① Pranayan Saikia
- ② Bhagya Priya Boruah
- ③ Anoma Ka Chayan
- ④ Himu Saikia